Are you looking for a role where you can make a difference at one of the country's leading universities?

As part of the Application Support team in IT you will play a key role in the support, maintenance and continued improvement of SAP and other business critical solutions.

You will utilise SAP skills, knowledge and experience to provide high quality proactive and reactive application support. Acting as an internal SAP consultant a key responsibility will be the implementation of new and improved functionality. You will work effectively, aligned to the software application support lifecycle ensuring effective communication and consultation with stakeholders and customers in delivering and maintaining provision of fit for purpose solutions.

You will be able to demonstrate considerable experience of configuration relating to the SAP modules (HR / Payroll). You will have a strong IT background, excellent interpersonal and written communication skills with the ability to develop and maintain positive working relationships with both internal and external stakeholders. You must also have good organisational skills, be proactive and self-motivated and be able to work under pressure to tight deadlines.

What does the role entail?

As an Application Support Analyst (SAP HR / Payroll) your main duties will include:

- Working to agreed standard operation procedures and industry standards to effectively support existing and new services;
- Providing expert advice and guidance to influence and shape system support service levels and standards that represent best value for customers and meet agreed expectations;
- Acting as a lead in the application support area for change management processes, adhering to change procedures, effectively documenting changes;

- Providing support for core services by handling incidents, undertaking investigation, working with colleagues to confirm bugs and providing clear and timely communication with users;
- Responsibility for effectively planning and allocating your own time, and the time of others when appropriate, to ensure efficient deployment of resources, planning and prioritising work in line with the aims, objectives and priorities of the wider IT Service;
- Establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with a wide range of individuals at all levels;
- Analysing a range of management information, identifying trends and patterns to ensure that application support services form part of a process of continual service improvement;
- Proactively support the development and implementation of a customer focused application support service;
- Responsibility for training, mentoring and coaching colleagues in the team to share best practice and ensure high standards of application support are consistently provided to all customers;
- Working with procurement to ensure effective supplier management, including development of processes, contribution to licence and software asset management agreements;
- Supporting the ongoing development of Standard Operating Procedures and continual service improvement, including ongoing development of knowledge base articles and artefacts.

These duties provide a framework for the role and should not be regarded as a definitive list. Other reasonable duties may be required consistent with the grade of the post.

What will you bring to the role?

As an Application Support Analyst (SAP HR / Payroll) you will have:

- Experience of configuring SAP HR and Payroll modules, specifically processes and policies that ensure legislative requirements are adhered to;
- Extensive experience of providing technical or application support in a diverse technology environment;
- Experience of configuring SAP Payroll i.e. wage types, dynamic actions, calculation rules, schema's; salary sacrifice schemes, pension schemes etc.;

- Experience of SAP time and attendance, organisation management personnel development, and personnel administration configuration;
- Experience of effectively gathering service requirements from diverse groups of stakeholders, to inform current and future service provision;
