

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT MANAGER
NIHR RESEARCH DELIVERY NETWORK COORDINATING CENTRE

Salary Grade: 7

Reporting to: Senior Stakeholder Engagement Manager

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT MANAGER

Reports to: Senior Stakeholder Engagement Manager

Overview of the Role

The University of Leeds has been chosen by the UK government to lead the National Institute for Health and Care Research (NIHR) Research Delivery Network Coordinating Centre (RDNCC), and will be joined by 12 new Regional Research Delivery Networks (RRDNs), hosted by NHS organisations across the country to form the NIHR Research Delivery Network (RDN). The new NIHR RDN will operate as one unified organisation across England, balancing regional context, expertise and leadership with national coordination and strategy involving government policymakers. The RDNCC will work across England's health and care system, with staff in all settings, to support the effective and efficient initiation and delivery of research.

You will be responsible for supporting the operational delivery of engagement with stakeholders for the Join Dementia Research and Be Part of Research services.

You will work collaboratively with colleagues within the RDNCC and, as required, across the RDN and the University of Leeds, and with external stakeholders in a host of settings. You will support the operational delivery of the organisation-wide shift in ways of working and culture that is required to ensure the network functions as a single organisation with a shared purpose and vision across England, as well as mutually supporting colleagues through the period of transformation and beyond.

This role requires national travel.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Common duties and responsibilities for RDNCC Grade 7 roles

Ensure the effective coordination and delivery of key activities and projects within the function in line with organisational policies and priorities.

Support the management and coordination of the function's resources, including, recruiting, training and managing staff and providing input into the function's service improvement plans and strategic objectives.

Providing operational oversight, support, and professional expertise, both within the team and to stakeholders.

Producing high quality plans, briefing documents and/or reports for stakeholders and decision makers and/or for project or programme boards, including the analysis and presentation of data and management information.

Working collaboratively with RDNCC colleagues and stakeholders across the RDN and NIHR and the University of Leeds and externally, facilitating discussions and actively participating in groups and meetings in order to influence discussions, events and opinions to achieve operational objectives.

Make independent decisions, advise colleagues and senior leadership and lead or proactively input into service improvement initiatives to support the achievement of operational objectives and future direction. Identify opportunities, risks and optimal solutions to problems, analysing options and considering precedent to determine the best course of action.

Demonstrating personal leadership in terms of being focussed, flexible, professional, motivated and personally effective.

Duties and responsibilities specific to this role

1. Responsibility for the direct line management of staff, which will include undertaking staff reviews to identify training and development needs and establishing how those needs will be met and managing performance against agreed objectives.
2. Establish and maintain relationships with key stakeholders to support the use of and engagement with the digital engagement services.
3. Develop and implement plans to engage with the full range of the digital services stakeholders, including the public, charities, NHS England, the devolved administrations, commercial and non-commercial research teams, CROs and CTUs, healthcare professionals and the wider NIHR.
4. Facilitate workshops, events and training activities for a wide range of internal and external stakeholders.

5. Work as part of a multi-disciplinary product team to support the development of the digital engagement services, including national projects to promote the services and working collaboratively across the RDN to support wider stakeholder engagement.
6. Deputise for the Senior Stakeholder Engagement Manager.

Other duties

These duties provide a framework for the role and should not be regarded as a definitive list. Other reasonable duties may be required consistent with the grade of the post.

Additional information

NIHR Research Delivery Network

The National Institute for Health and Care Research (NIHR) is funded by the Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC). NIHR works in partnership with the NHS, universities, local government, other research funders, patients and the public. The NIHR funds, enables and delivers world-leading health and social care research that improves people's health and wellbeing and promotes economic growth. NIHR is a major funder of applied health research in low and middle-income countries. Further information on the NIHR can be found at www.nihr.ac.uk.

As part of NIHR, the Research Delivery Network (RDN) supports the effective and efficient initiation and delivery of funded research across the health and care system in England for the benefit of patients, the health and care system and the economy. The scope and purpose of RDN is to support:

- Clinical trials and other well-designed health and social care research studies (including studies that are delivered outside of an NHS setting).
- Public health studies that require the recruitment of individuals within an NHS setting (that is, acute, ambulance, mental health, community, or primary care) or an episode of care which involves contact with the NHS.

The whole of England will be supported through 12 NIHR Regional Research Delivery Networks (RRDNs). The RRDNs will work with the national Research Delivery Network Coordinating Centre (RDNCC) to provide a joint RDN leadership function so that the NIHR RDN as a whole functions as a single organisation with a shared vision and purpose across England.

The University of Leeds is the provider of the RDNCC, working with and on behalf of DHSC. The University will be the employer for this role.
