Yorkshire Bioscience Doctoral Training Partnership Coordinator, Faculty of Biological Sciences

Are you committed to delivering an exceptional experience for postgraduate researchers and do you have experience of working with multiple stakeholders? Are you a highly organised and versatile individual with an ability to develop and maintain productive relationships across boundaries, including with external partners?

In this role you will coordinate the administrative delivery of the Yorkshire Bioscience Doctoral Training Partnership (DTP). The DTP is a Biotechnology and Biological Sciences Research Council (BBSRC) funded project with a focus on supporting bioscience and biotechnology projects that will underpin the development of a vibrant bio-economy in the Yorkshire region.

Possessing excellent interpersonal and communication skills, including the ability to write reports, you will take responsibility for generating content for dissemination through websites, email, newsletters and social media. You will be able to provide full-scale administrative support to the Partnership, and will be involved in a wide range of activities, such as committee support, event organisation, financial reporting and budget tracking and day to day support for the postgraduate researchers (PGRs) on the programme.

Occasional travel across Yorkshire will be required.

What we offer in return

- 26 days holiday plus approx.16 Bank Holidays/days that the University is closed by custom (including Christmas) That's 42 days a year!
- Generous pension scheme options plus life assurance.
- Health and Wellbeing: Discounted staff membership options at The Edge, our state-of-the-art Campus gym, with a pool, sauna, climbing wall, cycle circuit, and sports halls.
- Personal Development: Access to courses run by our Organisational Development & Professional Learning team.
- Access to on-site childcare, shopping discounts and travel schemes are also available.

And much more!

The University of Leeds and the Faculty of Biological Sciences are committed to providing equal opportunities for all and offer a range of family friendly policies. The University is a charter member of Athena SWAN (the national body that promotes gender equality in higher education), and the Faculty of Biological Sciences currently holds a Silver award. We are proud to be an inclusive Faculty that values all staff, and are happy to consider job share applications and requests for flexible working arrangements from our employees. Our Athena SWAN webpage provides more information.

Main duties and responsibilities

- Responsibility for the delivery, maintenance, and coordination of all administrative systems and processes for the effective operation of the DTP programme and the updating of these as the DTP evolves. This will involve creating and implementing project plans over the lifetime of the DTP. You will ensure all systems and processes align with University of Leeds policies and processes including quality assurance and financial integrity;
- Engaging with external partner relationships, including communicating and liaising, on a regular basis, with existing external stakeholders such as industry, BBSRC and international partners and engaging with potential new stakeholders;
- Acting as key support to the Management Board for bids for any future programmes/partnerships, including drafting reports, proof reading and providing relevant information.
- Responsibility for financial management of accounts in conjunction with Faculty Finance office and presentation of accounts to Management Board; preparation of paperwork and financial information for audit;
- Working proactively with marketing to deliver a strong digital and social media presence (Twitter, LinkedIn, alumni network and website), develop, maintain and update recruitment materials, facilitate on-going publicity of DTP activities and external communications;
- Coordinating recruitment processes for DTP PGRs across the three universities to ensure consistent standards, and leading on the organisation of the DTP induction, symposia, conferences, training and other events as required;

- Full coordination of the DTP's placement programme Professional Internship for PhD Students (PIPS), allowing PGRs to be matched with placement opportunities and monitoring the programme throughout;
- Acting as the first point of contact for PGRs on the programme, dealing with their queries and referring them to the appropriate support mechanism (for example, the Faculty's Graduate Support Office).

These duties provide a framework for the role and should not be regarded as a definitive list. Other reasonable duties may be required consistent with the grade of the post.

Qualifications and skills

Essential

- Significant experience in providing effective administrative support;
- Experience of financial reporting and the monitoring of budgets;
- An enthusiasm and commitment for delivering an exceptional student experience, with experience in reviewing and improving processes and the ability to develop and embed standards;
